WHAT IS THE OECD FORUM?

OECD FORUM: the "must-go" event on today's international calendar.

The OECD Forum is a "multi-stakeholder summit" which brings together business and labour leaders, civil society personalities, government ministers and leaders of international organisations to discuss the hottest issues on the international agenda. It takes place in conjunction with the annual OECD Ministerial summit.

Speakers are usually at the level of Minister or CEO. Forum 2006 attracted approximately 1400 participants from 70 countries, including 150 journalists.
